

LEON CEBON MEMORIAL LECTURE SERIES 2010

LECTURE NUMBER 1

DATE: 7TH FEBRUARY 2010

SPEAKER: PROF. AGNES BANKIER

TOPIC: ON THE GENETICS OF BEING JEWISH

Scientists are only now starting to unravel the interaction of our genetic nature and the influence of our environment. Our genetic lineage and culture influence disease susceptibility, our approach to ethical issues and the way we deal with the challenges of our lives.

Professor Agnes Bankier is the Director of the Victorian Clinical Genetics Services, which is part of the Murdoch Children's Research Institute at the Royal Children's Hospital in Melbourne.

She oversees the provision of clinical and laboratory genetic services, research and education.

All lectures take place on Sunday Evenings at 8:00 pm

in the Norman Smorgon Hall

Malmsbury Street (cnr Walpole Street), Kew 3101

 9853 9243 or  office@khc.org.au