PUBLIC NOTICE REGARDING THE ERUV BOUNDARY ON ALMA ROAD

This notice is to remind users of the Melbourne Eruv to check the boundaries of the eruv before Shabbat when intending to walk on a route where they are unfamiliar with the location of the eruv boundary.

Eruv users are reminded of the advice regarding the northern boundary of the eruv which was published some years ago and is available at <http://melbourne.eruv.org.au/index.php?article=5>

As shown on the map section below, when walking to St Kilda Shule, to stay within the eruv, you must walk on the southern side (the Caulfield side) of Alma Road between Alexandra Street and Chapel Street. The northern side of Alma Road between Alexandra Street and Chapel Street is outside the eruv.

Those walking to St Kilda Shule must stay on the south side of Alma Road until after the traffic signals for pedestrians on the St Kilda side of the intersection with Chapel Street. Those walking from St Kilda Shule must cross to the south side of Alma Road before they reach the traffic signals at the intersection with Chapel Street.
